

BE USED TO _ING
An English-Zone.Com Worksheet

NAME: _____
DATE: _____

I You He She It We You They	am are is is are are are	(not) used to ___ing	A. I am used to living in California. (be) used to + ___ing Meaning: Living in California feels normal to me. B. Sara isn't used to living in Alaska. (be)(not) used to + ___ing Meaning: Living in Alaska does not feel normal to her.
NOTE: BE USED TO -ING and BE ACCUSTOMED TO -ING have the same meaning, and follow the same grammar structure. Compare these examples: I am used to living in California. = I am accustomed to living in California.

PART A. Study the examples, then write sentences using BE USED TO -ING

- EX1. (eat) Circus elephants are used to eating peanuts for lunch every day.
EX2. (have) Elephants aren't used to having hamburgers for lunch every day.

1. (have) Yuki is Japanese. She _____ miso soup for breakfast every day.
2. (eat) I _____ steak for lunch and dinner every day. That's too expensive!

3. (hunt) Eskimos _____ in cold weather. They live in Alaska.
4. (work) Santa Clause _____ cold weather. He lives in the North Pole.
5. (live) Hawaiian people _____ in cold weather. Hawaii has tropical weather.

6. (carry) Moving men _____ heavy boxes up the stairs all day. They work hard.
7. (carry) My boss _____ heavy boxes up the stairs all day, so he fell down.

8. (do) Max _____ college mathematics, so he doesn't understand his homework.
9. (solve) The professors _____ difficult algebra problems, so they are easy.

10. (work) A soldier _____ harsh physical conditions.
11. (follow) Soldiers _____ orders from their commanders.
12. (get) Soldiers _____ very much free time. They're always busy.

PART B. Rewrite the sentences using BE ACCUSTOMED TO -ING

BE USED TO _ING
An English-Zone.Com Worksheet

-ANSWER KEY-

I You He She It We You They	am are is is are are are	(not) used to ___ing	A. I am used to living in California. (be) used to + ___ing Meaning: Living in California feels normal to me. B. Sara isn't used to living in Alaska. (be)(not) used to + ___ing Meaning: Living in Alaska does not feel normal to her.
NOTE: BE USED TO -ING and BE ACCUSTOMED TO -ING have the same meaning, and follow the same grammar structure. Compare these examples: I am used to living in California. = I am accustomed to living in California.

PART A. Study the examples, then write sentences using BE USED TO -ING

EX1. (eat) Circus elephants are used to eating peanuts for lunch every day.

EX2. (have) Elephants aren't used to having hamburgers for lunch every day.

- (have) Yuki is Japanese. She is used to eating miso soup for breakfast every day.
- (eat) I am not used to eating steak for lunch and dinner every day. That's too expensive!
- (hunt) Eskimos are used to hunting in cold weather. They live in Alaska.
- (work) Santa Clause is used to working cold weather. He lives in the North Pole.
- (live) Hawaiian people aren't used to living in cold weather. Hawaii has tropical weather.
- (carry) Moving men are used to carrying heavy boxes up the stairs all day. They work hard.
- (carry) My boss isn't used to carrying heavy boxes up the stairs all day, so he fell down.
- (do) Max isn't used to doing college mathematics, so he doesn't understand his homework.
- (solve) The professors are used to solving difficult algebra problems, so they are easy.
- (work) A soldier is used to working harsh physical conditions.
- (follow) Soldiers are used to following orders from their commanders.
- (get) Soldiers aren't used to getting very much free time. They're always busy.

PART B. Rewrite the sentences using BE ACCUSTOMED TO -ING

- (have) Yuki is Japanese. She is accustomed to eating miso soup for breakfast every day.
- (eat) I am not accustomed to eating steak for lunch and dinner every day. That's too expensive!
- (hunt) Eskimos are accustomed to hunting in cold weather. They live in Alaska.
- (work) Santa Clause is accustomed to working cold weather. He lives in the North Pole.
- (live) Hawaiian people aren't accustomed to living in cold weather. Hawaii has tropical weather.
- (carry) Moving men are accustomed to carrying heavy boxes up the stairs all day. They work hard.
- (carry) My boss isn't accustomed to carrying heavy boxes up the stairs all day, so he fell down.
- (do) Max isn't accustomed to doing college mathematics, so he doesn't understand his homework.
- (solve) The professors are accustomed to solving difficult algebra problems, so they are easy.
- (work) A soldier is accustomed to working harsh physical conditions.
- (follow) Soldiers are accustomed to following orders from their commanders.
- (get) Soldiers aren't accustomed to getting very much free time. They're always busy.