

WHAT WOULD YOU DO?
An English-Zone.Com Worksheet

NAME: _____
DATE: _____

Example:

A: My cousin Julie dropped out of school.

B: Really? If I were Julie, I'd go back to school and get my diploma.

A: _____

B: Really? If I were _____, I'd _____

Using the model above, give advice about the situations below:

1) Jim is looking for a job. He thinks he might like to work in a hotel.

Really? If I were

2) My friend Betty just won the lottery!

Really? If

3) My brother has to take an important test on Friday.

Really?

4) Richard loves to read, but he can't afford to buy many books.

5) Mr. Jones has been offered a full-time job as a banker.

6) Sally's boyfriend, Larry, went out on a date with another girl last weekend.

7) Jane met Ted for the first time last week, and he's already asked her to marry him!

8) Jack is upset because he wants to go to his friend's wedding, but he doesn't have a nice suit to wear.

9) Nancy's worried because she has a job interview tomorrow, and she's not sure where the company is located.

10) John really wants to have a pet, but he's allergic to cats and dogs.

11) Mrs. Baker has been in bed for three days. She isn't feeling well.

12) Hilda got a utility bill at her new apartment, and she doesn't understand it.

13) When Mr. Thomas paid for his groceries, the cashier didn't give him enough change in return.

14) My friend, Lisa, is having trouble filling out her income tax forms.

15) Max studied really hard for his grammar, but he got his lowest score ever! He failed miserably.