POSTCARDS TO FRIENDS

Directions: Fill in the missing past tense verbs to complete the postcards. Then create your own below.

	Dear,
	I left France, and I am now in Italy! Can you believe it?! I (visit) the Leaning Tower of Pisa yesterday. Tourists cannot go inside, so I (need, not) a ticket. It (be) strange to see the tower leaning to the side like that. I (keep) waiting for it to fall over, but it (remain) upright. In France, I (eat) some very good French food. I (drink) some wine too. I (meet) some nice people. I (get) lost a few times, so I (ask) some people for directions. They (be) very helpful. I (buy) a few nice souvenirs for you. See you soon!
Hello,	Love,
Here is a postCard of the igloo hotel we (stay) at in Nome, Alaska. We (help) the Eskimos build this igloo yesterday. Then we (build) a fire inside. I (be) surprised to learn that an igloo can be warm! We (think, not) that it would be very warm. We (go) ice-fishing, but we (go, not) swimming. It (be) too cold! Bye for now!
	Love,

Hello Petra,

Here is a postcard of the igloo hotel we (stay) stayed at in Nome, Alaska. We (help) helped the Eskimos build this igloo yesterday. Then we (build) built a fire inside. I (be) was surprised to learn that an igloo can be warm! We (think, not) didn't think that it would be very warm. We (go) went ice-fishing, but we (go, not) didn't go swimming. It (be) was too cold!

Bye for now! Violetta
